

EASA developments on RFFS

CTIF Meeting 7 October 2020

Vasileios STEFANIOROS – Senior Expert, Aerodromes

EASA FS.2.4

Your safety is our mission.

Latest Updates

- ED Decision 2020/009/R – 15 July 2020
  - Guidance Material for rescue and firefighting personnel medical and physical fitness
  - Training on pressure-fed fuel fires
    - AMC to allow other types of fuel to be used for training purposes

Latest Updates

- Regulation (EU) No 2020/1234 on apron management services
  - Applicable as of 20 March 2022
  - ADR.OPS.D.050 Alerting of emergency services
    - establishment of a procedure in the AEP to alert emergency services for accidents and incidents at the apron
    - provision of appropriate means and facilities to alert emergency services
    - Content of the procedure
      - contact details and means to alert emergency services
      - information that needs to be provided
        - location of the accident/incident
        - nature of the accident or incident
        - damages
        - injuries to persons
        - dangerous goods
  - AMC/GM will be published until the end of the year

Future developments

- Language proficiency requirements
- Improve runway safety
  - Mitigate the risk of runway incursions
- Not specific related to RFFS personnel but for all persons using R/T on the manoeuvring area
- Language proficiency at operational level
- Provisions for training, initial and recurrent, and issuance of certificate
- Transition period of 5 years
- Regulation will be published in December 2020

Thank you very much for your attention

vasileios.stefanioros@easa.europa.eu
aerodromes@easa.europa.eu

easa.europa.eu/connect

Your safety is our mission.

An Agency of the European Union 